

Claudia Ricchetti

GENERAL COUNSEL

---

General Counsel at Atlantia from 1 September 2020 and Secretary to the Company's Board of Directors. Born in Bari, she holds a degree in Law, is a qualified lawyer and holds an MBA. Over her professional career, she has headed the legal and corporate affairs departments at Cecchi Gori Communications, Seat Pagine Gialle, Lottomatica, ANAS and Octo Group. She has had experience in several industries with a specific focus on regulated sectors, and has also been director of several companies, including listed entities. She is committed to the development of women in management and is the founder of the Roman Chapter of EWMD, the European Women's Management Development Network.