

Nicola Verdicchio

---

Born in Rome, Mr. Nicola Verdicchio graduated in law at “La Sapienza” University of Rome and began his professional career in 1986 at the food-products multinational corporation Danone.

In 1987 he joined, Stet Società Finanziaria Telefonica p.a., covering different roles with increasing responsibility within the Legal and Corporate Affairs Department of the company. In 1997, he was appointed Head of the Legal and Corporate Affairs Department of the multinational company Stet International S.p.A. In 1999, he was appointed Head of International Business Development within the Legal and Corporate Affairs Department of Telecom Italia Group.

In February 2004, as Group Senior Vice President of Telecom Italia S.p.A., he was Head of the International Legal Affairs Department in charge of the legal assistance regarding the international businesses and activities of Telecom Italia Group and, afterwards, of all domestic and international merger and acquisition activities.

In January 2014, he joined the Pirelli Group as Senior Vice President and Chief Legal Officer of Pirelli & C. S.p.A. in charge of all the legal issues and international corporate affairs as well as the IP activities of the group. Mr. Verdicchio served as Board Member and Member of the Executive Committee of several companies in Italy, Germany, Netherlands, US, Brazil and Argentina, some of which are listed companies, and is a member of the Lex Mundi Client Advisory Council and of the 2020/2021 ICC Task Force on ADR and Arbitration.