

Press Release

Rome, 12 December 2017 – In response to a Reuters report published today alleging the intention of Atlantia to undertake legal actions in response to recent initiatives by two Ministries in Spain - Atlantia wishes to state categorically that this does not reflect the position of Atlantia.

The position of Atlantia has been stated in the press release of last Thursday 7 December which reflects our belief that the matter under discussion can be resolved constructively through engagement with all the relevant Spanish Authorities.
